WELCOME

You are here today and that makes you a meaningful part of the worship gathering. We value you being here! As we come together today, let's pray that we might give God our attention. Listen for His voice and see what He might have to say to you. His voice may be heard in a prayer, in a hallway conversation, from a child, during a prayer, in a song or maybe even in the sermon. We believe that God has something for you and we genuinely hope you are able to receive it.
