

BEAVERTON ADVENTIST CHURCH

June 25, 2022

Welcome

Happy Sabbath and welcome to the Lord's table today. God has demonstrated His desire that we would be with Him over and over again. He desires to be in relationship with you. One of the ways to foster relationship is sharing a meal. Jesus, God the Son, gave us a special 'meal' that is loaded with meaning. Today, we invite you to share this 'meal' with the Lord. Build connection, build relationship. Again, we are glad you are here this Sabbath and invite you to embrace our time of worship.

PRAISES & REQUESTS

- Cheryl Dondino is safe at rest in Jesus. Please pray for Roger and Donna Dondino, the whole Dondino family, as well as the many, many friends that were close with Cheryl. Cheryl quietly passed away Monday, (6/20), in the early hours. Cheryl's cancer had a resurgence, and we knew that her chances of recovery were not optimistic. However, her death arrived way sooner than anyone expected. We praise God that she held such strong faith in Jesus. Her healing prayers will be answered at the resurrection. Roger and Donna certainly value your love and support but let's also respect their space. 6/25

While she is still struggling with some issues in her life, she is in great need for God to intervene. May she know that God lifts us up when we fall. May her faith be strengthened as she sees God working in her life and surrounds her with prayers and arms of loving support. 5/28
