

BEAVERTON ADVENTIST CHURCH

April 8, 2023

Welcome

Good Morning and Happy Sabbath! This is what many refer to as Resurrection Weekend! We know that the resurrection of Christ happened on the morning of the first weekday, Sunday. But the power of the Easter story is strengthened by the Cross and the Tomb. Jesus died a horrific authentic death on the sixth day of the week, Friday. Jesus rested on the Sabbath, the seventh day, from the work of salvation. On Sunday He rose again! With His resurrection we who believe in Him are also lifted. The Bible says, in I Cor 6:14, "God will raise us from death by the same power He used when He raised our Lord to life." May God's resurrection power lift you today and continue to lift you all the way to life eternal.

PRAISES & REQUESTS

- CC sent in the following request: “Please pray for my brother George that God will heal him of his severe pain and to restore his health and also that God will bless the doctors with wisdom and that they will know what is wrong with him so they can help him. - Fely Magallanges requests prayer for her cousin Cris Fernandes, who was visiting the Philippines last month; and after having had remodeled the family house, suffered from a hemorrhagic stroke. Had a drain and bleeding stopped. His daughter was able to fly in from the US and when he was able, she transferred him to a larger hospital with more advanced care. With therapy, he is making progress and was recently able to stand for about 8 minutes. He is now able to swallow foods like yogurt. It is hoped that he will be strong enough to be able to return to the US in a couple of months. Let’s pray for his ongoing recovery, wisdom for his physicians and caregivers. May God bless and provide strength, and courage to work through all the therapy needed. “Please also pray for a dear one who wants to remain anonymous, a 20-year-old, having seizures which started in 2021 at 6-7 month intervals, but this January, had 2 in 13 days.
