

BEAVERTON ADVENTIST CHURCH

October 28, 2023

Welcome

Stories hold power- power to shape and to guide. Stories remind us who we are and where we come from. Join us as we journey with the question “What is the Church?” and ultimately “Why does it matter?” The first part of this sermon series explores the story of why I am an Adventist. By the end, it is my prayer that you will have a deeper understanding of what Jesus says about the church and why your church needs you.

“Now, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus Himself being the cornerstone” Ephesians 2:19-20

- 2. October Pastor Appreciation Month October is Pastor Appreciation Month, a special time to express our gratitude for the tireless work and dedication of our pastors. While we can never fully repay them for their spiritual guidance, we can offer our support in meaningful ways. One simple yet powerful way to do so is through prayer, especially for their families who often share the burdens of pastoral service. As a tangible gesture of appreciation, we've set up a basket in the foyer where you can place cards or small gifts to show your love and support for our pastors. Your kind words and tokens of appreciation can brighten their spirits and remind them of the impact they've had on our faith community.
- 3. Women's Ministry Craft Join us on Sunday, October 29, at 10:00 am for a warm beverage & small snack - followed by enjoying craft time. We will make binder clip photo holders and paper clip bookmarks. Supplies will be provided. This is the perfect event to bring a friend or family member! Sign up through the church app or contact Chris Altorfer; 503-849-1311; or chrisaltorfer@gmail.com.
- 4. Barn Party Success! We had an amazing time at our annual barn party with over 175 guests enjoying delicious food, music, a great worship talk, and games. Thanks to our hosts, Penny and Gil Messenger, and our social committee for their hard work. Also thank you to Children's Ministries led by Heidi McGill for the extra efforts in making it a fun time for the children. Finally, let's thank God for the blessing of church community. This 40-year tradition brought friends and family together for a heartwarming evening with bonfire, laughter, and scenic hayrides, creating cherished memories.
- 5. Barn Party Lost and Found If you left something behind at the Barn Party, check the lost and found bin in the foyer.
- 6. TVA Harvest Festival Tualatin Valley Academy is having their annual Harvest Festival on Sunday, October 29, from 3-6 pm. Money raised helps fund the 8th grade trip. Family friendly costumes are welcome.

- 7. Sock Drive Andie, a resilient community member, has discovered a profound sense of purpose through her annual sock drive for families in children's hospitals, Ronald McDonald Houses, and family shelters. Even in the face of her own health challenges, this remarkable woman has organized this heart and foot warming initiative for the past 10 years. Her goal is nothing short of remarkable: to collect an astonishing 10,000 pairs of fun and colorful socks to bring joy and warmth to those who need it most during the holiday season. There will be a box in the foyer to collect any socks you would like to donate during the month of November.

In the evening at 6:00 PM, they'll screen the inspiring movie "Hacksaw Ridge." Veterans are invited to wear their uniforms and share their branch of service with them for a special, heartfelt gift and send a digital photo of them in uniform. They look forward to coming together as a community to express their gratitude and support for those who've selflessly served our country. Photos can be sent to scottrrice64@aol.com
